Notes

- .x designates that any and all modifications available follow the Enhanced and Standard designated Software Support Lifecycle Policy for the associated version/release of the product.
- The policy type column indicates which of IBM's standard ("S"), enhanced ("E") or other ("O") Software Support Lifecycle Policy applies to each version/release product.
- The General Availability (GA) date listed is the latest date that a version/release of the product is available to all users, regardless of language or media.

4. The End of Support (EOS) date listed is the last date on which IBM will deliver standard support services for a given version/release of a product.
